

REPORT FROM THE EXPLORATORY MEETING OF AFLIA TO AFRICA SECTION MEETING IN FEBRUARY 2012

INTRODUCTION

The first AFRICA LIBRARY SUMMIT was held from 11-13 May 2011 at Misty Hills Hotel Conference Centre & Spa, Muldersdrift, South Africa, hosted by UNISA with financial support from several organizations and institutions including UNISA and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

The delegates from the Africa LIS community from several countries in Africa agreed to some recommendations. A motion put forward by Mr. John Tsebe, Director National Library of South Africa, and seconded by Helena Asamoah- Hassan, Librarian Kwame Nkrumah University of Science & Technology, Kumasi, Ghana asking for the establishment of an African Federation for LIS (Annex 1) was carried and this was followed by a statement signed by all delegates.

Another recommendation was the continuity of Africa Library Summit (ALS) which was also agreed upon by the delegates and Shawky Salem, Professor of LIS, Alexandria, Egypt was tasked to prepare a study for the continuity of African Library Summit (Annex 2) which was adopted by the Exploratory Committee that met in Accra on 12 December 2011, .

The meeting agreed that the Africa Section Standing Committee should set up an Exploratory Committee to do the ground work. ## CONCLUSION

We are working hard to meet the deadlines we have set, since we desire that the momentum gathered at the Africa Library Summit should be sustained and the interest to be alive so that AFLIA will be introduced and launched at SCECSAL.

We also hope that the desire to establish AFLIA will be communicated to the African Library Community, especially National Library Associations (to enable them discuss with their membership) and National Libraries (to enable them plan to lobby their governments) before the Bid to Host its Secretariat comes out to ensure that people understand what the Bid request is about.

The appointment /election of an Interim Council at SCECSAL will further strengthen the resolve to form the association as they will be working with the Secretariat Host, which will be known by end of May 2012, to move plans and actions forward.

It is therefore important for the Africa Section Standing Committee to encourage National Association Presidents and National Librarians in Africa to attend SCECSAL.

Thank you

Helena Asamoah-Hassan (Dr.)
Chair of the Exploratory Committee
