

The IFLA-ALP Information Literacy and IT Workshop

Held at Victoria University of Wellington Library, New Zealand

13 November – 8 December 2006

Programme Schedule
	Morning Sections (9.30 – 12.30)	Afternoon Sections (13:15-16:30)
Week 1	Pedagogy for information literacy education
Mon 13 Nov	- Introduction to the programme (Gary Gorman & Dan Dorner) - Introduction to workshop projects (Philip Calvert) - Photographs	- Tour of VUW Main Library (James Duncan) - Tour of Wellington City Libraries (Kimberley Clayton)
Tues 14 Nov	The context of information literacy (Gary Gorman & Dan Dorner)	- The basic IL skills (Gary Gorman) - Student learning styles (Philip Calvert)
Wed 15 Nov	Critical thinking and independent learning (Dan Dorner)	Defining information 'needs' (Dan Dorner)
Thurs 16 Nov	- Planning a search strategy - Choosing the most relevant sources (Alastair Smith)	- Boolean logic, operators, truncation - Overcoming roadblocks to good searching (James Duncan)
Fri 17 Nov	IL project work: content (Philip Calvert)	IL project work: Dreamweaver Tutorials I (Lan Anh Tran)
Week 2	Programme development and content
Mon 20 Nov	Database structure (for good searching) (Alastair Smith)	Web search engines (Alastair Smith)
Tues 21 Nov	Evaluating information and web sites (James Duncan)	Rationale for an IL programme (institutional mission, programme objectives, etc.) (Philip Calvert)
Wed 22 Nov	IL project work: Dreamweaver Tutorials (II) (Lan Anh Tran)	Citing information resources and ethical use of information (James Duncan)
Thurs 23 Nov	Structure of an IL programme and individual units (Gary Gorman)	Learning objectives and Writing behavioural objectives (Philip Calvert)
Fri 24 Nov	IL project work: Fireworks and Flash Tutorials (Lan Anh Tran)	IL project work: Supervised working session (Lan Anh Tran & Gary Gorman)

Week 3	Programme delivery
Mon 27 Nov	Distance learning for IL (Gary Gorman)	Technologies for distance learning in IL (Dan Dorner)
Tues 28 Nov	Producing good teaching aids (Dan Dorner & Gary Gorman)	Presentation skills for the IL classroom (Dan Dorner)
Wed 29 Nov	- Learning activities for effective delivery (Dan Dorner) - IL Project work: supervised working session (Lan Anh Tran)	- Tour of VUW Law Library (Victor Lipski) - Tour of National Library (Tania Connolly)
Thurs 30 Nov	Assessing student outcomes (Gary Gorman & Dan Dorner)	Tour of two special libraries: - Alcohol and Liquor Advisory Council (ALAC) (Annette Beattie) - Telecom (Sally Myles)
Fri 1 Dec	All day IL project work: supervised working session (Lan Anh Tran)
Week 4	Programme evaluation
Mon 4 Dec	Evaluating the IL programme: types of evaluation (Gary Gorman)	Evaluating the IL programme: outcomes-based evaluation (Gary Gorman)
Tues 5 Dec	All day tour of regional libraries (Philip Calvert)
Wed 6 Dec	Forms of assessment for the IL programme (Dan Dorner)	Managing and marketing an IL programme (James Duncan)
Thurs 7 Dec	Getting feedback on an IL programme (Philip Calvert)	IL project work: supervised working session (Lan Anh Tran)
Fri 8 Dec	Presentation of project work by participants (All instructors)	- Certificate presentation - Photographs - Conclusion of workshop (All instructors)

As part of the workshop, each participant has to complete a project on some aspect of Information Literacy. They produce material institutions.

Published date: 6 December 2006