Asian Festival of Children’s Content

Asian Content for the World’s Children

Once upon a cyberspace, children explored the world through libraries, bedtime tales and story books. Books are still around, but they are looking different. As technology puts media access into children’s pockets and bedrooms, how do content makers stay connected with connected kids? Get the answers at The Asian Festival of Children’s Content (AFCC) in Singapore from 26 – 28 May 2011. The festival is back — bigger, better and bolder.

Theme: Connecting With Connected Kids
26 – 28 May 2011
@ The Arts House, Singapore
For more information, please visit www.bookcouncil.sg or www.afcc.com.sg.

Organised by

Supported by