Learning Section

Dear XXXX

I am contacting you in follow up to your submission of a proposal for the IFLA Satellite Meeting Taking Chare of your LIS Career: Personal Strategies, Institutional Programs, Strong Libraries in Milnerton, South Africa on August 12, 13 and 14, 2015.

Thank you for offering a presentation for this Conference. We are pleased to be able to advise you that, following peer review, your proposal has been accepted by the Conference program selectors subject to some refinement of the focus of your presentation. There is also the possibility of publication of your presentation in the published online Proceedings.

The peer review committee found your topic and focus of interest and relevance to the conference audience. We would like to ask that you ...

We hope that these comments are helpful.

Could you please, by a return email, confirm that you accept this invitation to prepare a paper for presentation at the IFLA Satellite Meeting in Milnerton, South Africa?

Could you please also advise me if you wish to submit your paper for publication in the online Conference Proceedings?

If you do wish to have the paper published you must submit the full paper for peer review by March 15, 2015. (Note that this tight deadline for submission is required in order to meet publication deadlines.)

On receipt of your confirmation we will provide you with detailed author guidelines and further information regarding the timeline and process for peer review feedback and editing of papers for publication.

We look forward to your reply.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions and/or comments.
