CONTENTS

Michael Dowling. Libraries, Librarians, and Library Associations in the United States in 2001: Making a Difference in the Knowledge Age ........................................... 133
Hillar Addo. Utilizing Information and Communication Technology for Education and Development: Issues and Challenges for Developing Countries .......... 143
Marianna Tax Choldin. What Every Librarian Should Know about Intellectual Freedom: a Personal View .............................................. 152
John Durno, Simon Lloyd, Elaine MacLean, Sandra Singh. Librarianship in 2010: the '00 Decade in Review .......... 159
Ute Krauß-Leichert. The Multimedia Sector - New Fields of Activity for Information Specialists? ..... 163
Nick Moore. Library Associations - their Role in Supporting the Creation of Information Societies ........................................... 171

IFLA NEWS

From the Secretariat
IFLA Journal and IFLA Headquarters Staff ........................................... 177
Introducing the New Web Manager at IFLA Headquarters .................. 177
IFLA’s New Office Manager ......................................................... 178
IFLA Elections ................................................................. 178
Executive and Professional Board Meetings, March 2001 ...................... 179
New Members ................................................................. 180
Libraries on Postcards ......................................................... 181
IFLA Conferences .............................................................. 182
From the Divisions, Sections and Round Tables
IFLA Standing Committee Members Elected for the 2001-2005 Term ......................................................... 182
From the CLM Committee
IFLA Approves Licensing Principles .............................................. 185
IFLA Licensing Principles ......................................................... 185
From the IAP Programme
IFLA Approves New Principles and Guidelines for International Lending and Document Delivery ......................................................... 187
International Lending and Document Delivery: Principles and Guidelines for Procedure ......................................................... 187
From the PAC Committee
Survey of African Newspapers ...................................................... 190
News from Corporate Partners
VubisSm@rt - Smart Technology for Smart Libraries ......................... 190
American Electric Power Company Switches to SIRSI ......................... 192
Other IFLA News
Reconstruction of Libraries in Kosova/Kosovo ........................................... 193
IFLA Donation to University of Sarajevo ........................................... 193
Reports of Meetings
NGO Forum on Least Developed Countries ........................................... 194
Publications of International Relevance
Launch of Public Library Guidelines .............................................. 194
Miscellaneous
Serageldin named Director-General of the New Library of Alexandria ........................................... 194
New SLA Executive Director ...................................................... 195
From the British Library to Yale ...................................................... 195
New Deputy at the National Library of South Africa ........................................... 195
South African Library Leadership Project ........................................... 195
Best LIBRI Student Paper Award ...................................................... 195
Integrated Library/Museum in New Zealand ........................................... 196
Obituaries: Birgitta Bergdahl; In Memoriam: Dr Rudolf Malek .................. 196
International Calendar ......................................................... 197