Section Projects

This year, the Section strengthened its structure and publications. It issued its first annual newsletter. The Section continued to send a call for papers for program proposals. Most of the papers are now published, which constitutes a solid database of scholarship.

New officers were elected. Claire Germain (USA) was renewed as Chair until 2015, Edita Bačić (Croatia) was elected Secretary and Sonia Poulin (Canada) Information Coordinator. A Certificate of Appreciation was given to Dominique Lapierre (Canada), to thank her for her excellent contributions as Secretary and in particular for the detailed minutes of the Standing Committee meetings. One of the Section’s pleasures was to learn that one SC member, had been elected IFLA president-elect. A Certificate of Appreciation was presented to Blair Kauffman with grateful appreciation and thanks for his contributions and service as a member of the Standing Committee of the IFLA Law Libraries Section.

Valerie Alonzo continued to update the website until August 2013. She concluded her work as Information Coordinator, and she is to be commended for her contributions to the Section, the regular updates to the website and as the editor and producer of the first IFLA Law Libraries Newsletter.

Report on Digital Authentication

Marisol Floren and Sally Holterhoff presented their work on the preparation of the Report on Access to Digital Legal Sources in South America. For this Report, they used studies presented in Puerto Rico and official websites of each country. All members agreed that the Report was very useful and that the SC should continue with this kind of work.

Radu Popa said that this is a very good first step to more complex further work on the Index. Caroline pointed out that it would be important to have this kind of report for African countries, and some colleagues indicated that it would be important also to have this kind of report for South Pacific Countries. Robert R. Newlen suggested that the Standing Committee should continue to work on this kind of reports in collaboration with the Library and Research Services for Parliaments Section. Sally Holterhoff, with the help of Marisol Floren-Romero and other members, will continue to work on the index and contact Stuart Hamilton of FAIFE to discuss the matter of the standards. Claire Germain concluded that this is really important work and also serious and demanding work which should be continued. She proposed a new working group: Working group on Access to official and authoritative legal information. Working group members are: Sally, Marisol, Uma, Lilia, Carol and Robert. Robert will contact the Section for the Library and Research Services for Parliament
Conference Activities and Programs

2013 IFLA (International Federation of Library Associations) conference, held August 17-23, Singapore.

Open Access to Official and Authenticated Legal Information in Asia was the title of the main program sponsored by the Law Libraries Section, with two other sections as co-sponsors. Six speakers gave presentations about trends in the online provision of legal resources by governments of countries in the region, to a large audience of nearly 130 delegates. Marisol Floren-Romero and Charlotte Gill are to be thanked for organizing it.

The Section co-sponsored a second program on Government Libraries as Voices for Open Government with the Government libraries and Government Information and Official Publications sections.
More information on the programs below.

Reception

A very successful reception was held for members of the Law Libraries Section, parliamentary librarians, and local law librarians. It was hosted by the Singapore Management University (SMU) and sponsored by LexisNexis. Gulcin Cribb (University Librarian) and Charlotte Gill (Research Librarian for Law at SMU) welcomed the guests. Claire Germain, Section Chair, thanked our hosts on behalf of the Section. Vivian Sia, Associate Director of Marketing for Southeast Asia, LexisNexis, provided short welcoming remarks as well.

Publications

This year, in collaboration with Claire Germain, Valerie Alonzo edited the first issue of the Law Library Section Newsletter.

The Conference Papers are available on the web site, see below.
