

Literacy and Reading Section
ACTION PLAN 2010-2011

PRIORITY ACTIONS IN 2010-2011

Action 1: Development of publication Using research to promote literacy and reading in libraries

Outcomes:

- Guidelines published as an IFLA Professional Report
- Translation of the Guidelines provided in Spanish, French and Russian
- Distribution of the Guidelines (analysed according a number of orders)

IFLA SP Priority activity: 3.1. and 3.3.

Action 2: Highlight the UNESCO Decade of Literacy 2003-2012 by the programme Beyond the United Nations Decade of Literacy: What Libraries Can Do, to be held at the WLIC, Puerto Rico 2011

Outcomes:

- Sharing of good literacy-based library programmes with up to 200 participants included into interactive programme
- Collection of 10 papers on library programmes related to the UN Decade of Literacy, for the Conference proceedings
- Marketing of current edition of the Section's publication Using research to promote literacy and reading in libraries

IFLA SP Priority activities:3.2 and 4.2

OTHER ACTIONS:

Action 3: Assisting to IFLA in the implementation of the Memorandum of Understanding through a contribution to the database of reading promotion programmes created under "IFLA Success stories"

- Cooperation with the section Ch&YA and international partner IBBY

IFLA SP Priority activities: 2.2. and 3.2.

Action 4: Support to the International Symposium "Reading link between generations: towards social solidarity", Tunis, 23-25 March 2011

- Expertise, participation in the programme and organising committees

IFLA SP Priority activities:2.2.; 2.3. and 3.1.

Action 5: Publicity work and expertise sharing

- To serve through the Section's web page as a resource of information about literacy and reading developments, research, projects, publications, etc.
- To publish Section's Newsletter twice a year, online and in printed version

IFLA SP Priority activities: 2.3.

Action 6: Demonstration and promotion of the publication Using research to promote literacy and reading in libraries

- promotion its translation into as many national languages as possible, making of translations accessible on the web.

IFLA SP Priority activities: 2.3. and 3.1.

November 2010

Ivanka Stricevic, LiR Section's Chair