Lessons learned from new developments in information and library policy at national level

IFLA National Information and Library Policy SIG
Kuala Lumpur 29 August 2018

Bill Macnaught, National Librarian,
National Library of New Zealand
Looking towards 2030

The National Library will create cultural and economic value for New Zealanders through leadership and collaboration. We will remove barriers to knowledge, ensure New Zealanders have the skills to create knowledge and preserve knowledge for future generations.
Taonga
New Zealanders will trust that their documentary heritage and taonga are collected, preserved and accessible, enabling the creation of new knowledge

Knowledge
New Zealanders will easily access, share and use New Zealand’s knowledge resources to innovate and create new knowledge

Reading
New Zealanders will have the literacy skills to achieve social, educational and employment success and be inspired to create new knowledge
