my letter should be published as I believe that any such offence of personal Freedom also concerns the public, because any forced alienation of Freedom acts just like radioactivity: in the end, no-one will remain untouched.
“An oval table you would say was as big as a football field. Laden with delicacies. Around the table humanlike beings in formal attire, with knives and forks in hand, with a full mouth, savouring the dishes. The caption ran: ‘World conference on the elimination of hunger’. It was a sketch in a foreign newspaper, many years ago. It stamped on my childhood eyes and soul”.
